LEAD THERAPIST
AUTISM PROGRAM ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION:

Catholic Charities, Diocese of Madison, is a private 501(c)(3) non-profit agency affiliated with Catholic Charities USA, the nation’s largest private network of people helping people. The organization has served individuals and families in an eleven county area in south central Wisconsin since 1946.

Their programs reach those who are facing the transitions of aging, living with a disability, experiencing abuse, dealing with a crisis pregnancy, seeking to adopt, having marital or family problems, live in rural communities or seeking help with alcohol or drug abuse. They serve and employ persons regardless of religious, ethnic, racial or social background.

Catholic Charities’ work is made possible with financial support from private donations, the United Way, county contracts, client fees, foundation grants and Diocesan Services Appeal. The agency is governed by a local Board of Directors and employs more than 200 individuals.

As good stewards of the limited resources available for this work in the community, Catholic Charities actively promotes and participates in local coalitions and networks with other providers whenever possible to offer optimal care to program participants. A cadre of skilled, well-trained volunteers allows them to enhance a number of programs. Catholic Charities’ services meet the exacting standards set by the Council of Accreditation of Services for Families and Children, Inc., one of the highest standards of quality in the United States.

The serve the following counties: Columbia, Dane, Grant, Green, Green Lake, Iowa, Jefferson, Lafayette, Marquette, Rock and Sauk.
