JOB ANNOUNCEMENT
AFRICAN AMERICAN-COMMUNITY OUTREACH SPECIALIST

The Rape Crisis Center, Inc. (RCC) is seeking a full-time African American-Community Outreach Specialist (AACOS). This position requires someone with a demonstrated personal commitment and professional experience with African American communities in Dane County, WI. As part of an agency-wide transformative initiative, the AACOS will help grow RCC’s culturally-rich response to victims/survivors of sexual assault through building and strengthening relationships with African American communities. The AACOS will strive to increase access to the Rape Crisis Center’s services as well as local African American sexual assault victim/survivor counseling services. RCC, founded in 1973, is Dane County’s 24-hour sexual assault victim crisis and support agency. RCC promotes hope, help and healing for those harmed by sexual violence and strives, through education and outreach, to create social change to end sexual violence.

A successful candidate will have knowledge about and/or commitment to learn about trauma-informed care, sexual assault, rape, molestation, sexual violence and incest as well as gender identity competency. Understanding of the intersectionality of oppression of varying groups is essential. The right candidate will have personal experience with African American communities; networking and outreach skills; excellent public speaking skills; strong written and verbal communication skills; be organized, and excel at project coordination. Ability to travel throughout Dane County for meetings and events is required. A flexible schedule allows for day, evening and weekend hours.

Click here for a full position description. Medical and dental health insurance available.

To apply e-mail a cover letter addressing your interest and qualifications for the position and your resume to info@danecountyrcc.org. Please indicate “African American-Community Outreach Specialist Position” on subject line of email. Applications should be submitted by Monday, January 9, 2017 for consideration.

RCC is an equal opportunity employer. We highly encourage racial minorities, women, other minorities, bilingual candidates and individuals with disabilities to apply.