JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

OUTREACH AND EDUCATION SPECIALIST

The Rape Crisis Center, Inc. (RCC), serving Dane County, Wisconsin and located in Madison, is seeking a full-time Outreach and Education Specialist (OES) to increase access to the Rape Crisis Center’s sexual assault victim/survivor services through community outreach, and to educate youth and adults on successful sexual assault prevention methodologies. Medical and dental health insurance available. The Rape Crisis Center, founded in 1973, promotes hope, help and healing for those harmed by sexual violence and strives, through education and outreach, to create social change to end sexual violence.

The OES will provide outreach presentations to youth and adults, coordinate development of outreach materials, provide program evaluation through statistical reporting, coordinate training of volunteer presenters, and assist with writing prevention education curriculum. The OES will provide guidance to RCC’s Youth Advisory Board in their work to change sexual assault-supportive behaviors within their schools; guide them in their development of a social media campaign, curriculum, and public policy; and coordinate their meetings and activities.

A successful candidate will have the ability to effectively communicate among diverse youth, adult and culturally-specific audiences; will have personal and professional experience with African American, Latin@, Asian and other cultures represented in Dane County; and will possess experience with, and/or the commitment and capacity to learn gender identity competency; has excellent public speaking skills, a clear understanding of sexual violence, strong written and verbal communication skills and the ability to organize and maintain materials, data, meeting minutes and logistics. A four year college or university degree is preferred though relevant work experience may be considered in lieu of a degree. Preferred skills include the ability to write and develop multi-media curriculum and speak both Spanish and English fluently.
