The Rape Crisis Center, Inc. (RCC), serving Dane County, Wisconsin and located in Madison, is seeking a full-time time Outreach and Education Specialist (OES) to develop, evaluate and implement outreach and education programming throughout Dane County. As Dane County’s only 24-hour sexual assault victim support agency, RCC, founded in 1973, promotes hope, help and healing for those harmed by sexual violence and strives, through education and outreach, to create social change to end sexual violence.

The OES is responsible for the development, implementation and evaluation of outreach programming to youth and adults throughout Dane County. RCC outreach increases victim access to RCC’s counseling, support, medical advocacy and legal advocacy and educates the community on the personal, familial and community impact of sexual assault, through education and outreach platforms. The OES is responsible for developing effective outreach materials and outreach education curriculum; recruiting and training Outreach Educator Volunteers; and building relationships with new and existing community partners. This position is supervised by the Director of Education and Outreach Programming (DEOP), who works closely with the Director of Client Programming on quality outreach initiatives.

A successful candidate will have a clear understanding of sexual violence and related issues, the ability to build strong relationships with youth, adult and diverse audiences, a Bachelor’s degree preferred though relevant work experience may be considered in lieu of a degree, excellent public speaking, verbal communication and written communication skills; personal and professional experience with, and/or the commitment and capacity to learn, gender identity competency and cultural competency in African American, Latin@, Asian and other cultures represented in Dane County and the ability to organize and maintain materials, data, meeting minutes and logistics. The right candidate will have experience using graphic design, be comfortable and competent working independently and as part of a team and be free to work day, evening and weekend hours depending on outreach schedule. Preference will be given to qualified candidates who are bilingual in Spanish and English and have experience developing outcome-driven curricula for diverse audiences. Click here for a full position description. Medical and dental health insurance available.

To apply, e-mail a cover letter addressing your interest and qualifications for the position and your resume to info@danecountyrcc.org. Please indicate “Outreach and Education Specialist Position” on subject line of email. Applications should be submitted by 07/11/16 for consideration.

RCC is an equal opportunity employer. We highly encourage racial minorities, women, other minorities, bilingual candidates and individuals with disabilities to apply.