Position Opening: Prevention and Education Advocate
FLSA: Non-Exempt

DAIS is the leading provider of domestic violence intervention and prevention services in Dane County. Founded in 1977, DAIS has grown from its humble beginnings of five volunteers working out of a church basement, to an organization of close to 45 full-time staff, numerous part-time staff, and over 130 volunteers providing comprehensive prevention and intervention programming to thousands of Dane County residents each year.

DAIS is seeking a full-time Prevention and Education Advocate who will be responsible for the planning and implementation of education and prevention programming throughout Dane County. The Prevention and Education programs at DAIS aim to increase awareness and knowledge of domestic violence issues as well as address the primary prevention of dating, domestic and sexual violence. Community education programming consists of presenting awareness-raising presentations to community partners and other stakeholders while prevention programming consists of working with schools and other community partners to co-facilitate groups for youth aimed at addressing the root causes of domestic violence.

A successful candidate will have a four-year college or university degree. Experience in the field may be substituted for the academic degree. A successful candidate will also have experience in public speaking and facilitating groups with adolescents. Experience in the violence prevention field and with victims of trauma preferred.

Bilingual candidates and individuals of color are encouraged to apply.

Benefits include access to purchase full medical and dental coverage, life insurance, short-term disability insurance, long-term disability insurance, and generous leave time.

To apply:
A complete application, resume and cover letter addressed to Hannah Wagner Jacoby are required to be considered for this position. You may obtain an application at http://abuseintervention.org/get-involved/jobs/. Resumes only in lieu of an application will NOT be considered.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

DAIS is an equal opportunity employer.