Position Opening:  Visitation and Exchange Crisis Response Advocate
FLSA:  Non-Exempt

DAIS is the leading provider of domestic violence intervention and prevention services in Dane County. Founded in 1977, DAIS has grown from its humble beginnings of five volunteers working out of a church basement, to an organization of over 50 full-time staff, numerous part-time staff, and more than 130 volunteers providing comprehensive prevention and intervention programming to thousands of Dane County residents each year. The organization recently experienced substantial growth in programming and the required staff and volunteer corps to support that programming.

DAIS is seeking a Visitation and Exchange Crisis Response Advocate to join our growing team. The Visitation and Exchange Crisis Response Advocate provides direct services to victims of domestic violence that access Dane County’s Supervised Visitation and Exchange Center. This includes completing safety screenings with new clients, providing initial and on-going support, safety assessments, planning, and providing referrals to DAIS and community resources. This is a part-time hourly position with a varied schedule requiring daytime, evening, and weekend availability.

A successful candidate will possess a four year degree in a human services related field. Relevant experience may be substituted for a degree. Experience working with victims of domestic violence and trauma survivors is preferred. Knowledge of community resources in Dane County is preferred. Bilingual (Spanish/English is also preferred.

Bilingual candidates and individuals of color are encouraged to apply.
