

John M. Borquist

Resume/Vita

Education

- MSSW , University of Wisconsin-Madison, 1968 (BA – Psychology, UW-Madison , 1966)
- Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW), State of Wisconsin
- Extensive post-masters training and experience
- State-Certified Psychotherapist

Employment

44 years as a professional social worker in Wisconsin:

- Wisconsin Child Center – State of Wisconsin, DHSS – social worker, team coordinator, supervisor in a child caring institution for children and adolescents with emotional, behavioral, delinquent disturbances (1968-1973)
- Lutheran Social Services of Wisconsin & Upper Michigan: family therapist with child, adolescent, family in-home treatment program; management and supervision of adoption, foster care, outpatient mental health/substance abuse clinic, community-based residential services for adults with mental illness and developmental disabilities, family life education, juvenile restitution program (1973-1991)
- Dane County Human Services: Management of C/Y/F contracted services (community-based and foster/group homes), development of Joining Forces for Families community-based social work, substance abuse and trauma services (last 8 years - $7 million budget; 17 agencies, 40+ programs/services) (1991-2007). Retired from Dane County in 2007.
- University of Wisconsin-Madison, School of Social Work: Field Education Seminar Long-Term Lecturer/Faculty Associate –Dane County Human Services Agencies Field Unit (2006-present)
- Special Education Assistant (substitute), Madison Metropolitan School District (2006-present)

Updated: January, 2013