

---

Fathers and Child Welfare: From Gaps to Opportunities

Spring 2014 Public Child Welfare Dialogue

with

Jennifer Bellamy, MSSW, Ph.D.

April 25, 10:00am—Noon
UW-Madison
Sterling Hall Room 1310

Parking Available in Lots 17, 20, 27. and Union South
.2 CEUs (2 CEHs) Available

---

Jennifer Bellamy is an Assistant Professor at the School of Social Service Administration at the University of Chicago. She teaches courses in clinical social work practice and integrating evidence into practice. Before earning her Ph.D. she worked as a project coordinator for a multisite demonstration project across the state of Texas designed to deliver case management, employment and peer-support services to young, unmarried, low-income fathers. Her current research interests include mental health services for families involved in or at risk of involvement in child welfare, the engagement of fathers in child and family services, and evidence-based practice.

---

For more information, contact
Russ Portier at:
Phone: 608-263-3616
E-mail: portier@wisc.edu

The Public Child Welfare Training Program operates with federal funds made available through Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, which provides specified financial support for students committed to a career in public child welfare.

PUBLIC CHILD WELFARE
TRAINING PROGRAM
UW-MADISON SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK