Kristen Weber leads CSSP’s internal strategic vision for addressing equity internally at CSSP and externally provides technical assistance to jurisdictions working to address racial and other inequities. She co-leads CSSP’s getREAL initiative that works at the local, state, and national level to support the healthy sexual and identity development of youth in foster care, with a particular focus on youth who identity as LGBTQ+. She also coordinates CSSP’s Institutional Analysis project (IA), a qualitative review process to analyze laws, policies, and practices that contribute to poor outcomes for particular populations involved with child welfare systems.

System Reforms Have Failed: Now is the Time for Abolition - The upEND Movement

Featuring Kristen Weber
Director, Equity, Inclusion & Justice
Center for the Study of Social Policy

Alan J. Dettlaff
Dean and Professor of the Graduate College of Social Work
University of Houston

Kristen Weber leads CSSP’s internal strategic vision for addressing equity internally at CSSP and externally provides technical assistance to jurisdictions working to address racial and other inequities. She co-leads CSSP’s getREAL initiative that works at the local, state, and national level to support the healthy sexual and identity development of youth in foster care, with a particular focus on youth who identity as LGBTQ+. She also coordinates CSSP’s Institutional Analysis project (IA), a qualitative review process to analyze laws, policies, and practices that contribute to poor outcomes for particular populations involved with child welfare systems.

Alan J. Dettlaff is Dean of the Graduate College of Social Work at the University of Houston and the inaugural Maconda Brown O’Connor Endowed Dean’s Chair. Prior to entering academia, Dean Dettlaff worked in the child welfare system as a caseworker and an administrator, where he specialized in investigations of maltreatment. He received his bachelor’s degree in social work from TCU, and master’s in social work and PhD from the University of Texas at Arlington. Dean Dettlaff’s research focuses on addressing and eliminating the impacts of structural and institutional racism on Black children and families involved in the child welfare system.

RSVP by November 9th at https://go.wisc.edu/lmly54

.15 CEUs Offered

If you need an accommodation to attend this event, please contact Russ Portier (portier@wisc.edu). All Accommodation requests should be made no less than 2 weeks before the event. We will attempt to fulfill requests after this date but cannot guarantee they will be met.