RESEARCH SUPPORT

Child Support Policy Research Agreement 2022- 2024
Research agreement with Wisconsin Department of Children and Families (Judi Bartfeld, Principal Investigator). I am leading a study entitled “Collaborating to provide a gateway to services and supports for noncustodial fathers.”
Role: Co-Investigator
Award amount: My project – $120,195; total award for the agreement –$5,348,176

Vilas Life Cycle Professorship 07/22-06/23
Women in Science & Engineering Leadership Institute (WISELI)
Father Involvement in Vaccination Decision-Making
This study aims to explore fathers’ beliefs about the safety of the COVID vaccine in general and during pregnancy, while breastfeeding, and for young children specifically; vaccination status and/or intentions; and level of (dis)agreement with co-parent(s) about vaccine safety. The translational goal of this research is to expand understanding of the actual and potential role of fathers in vaccination decisions and develop father-inclusive strategies to respond to parent concerns and build vaccine confidence.
Role: Principal Investigator
Award amount: $39,992.57

Clinical & Community Outcomes Pilot Award 04/21 – 03/22
UW-Madison Institute for Clinical & Translational Research
Black Fathers, Equal Partners in Advancing Maternal and Infant Health
This study aims to expand understanding of Black fathers’ perinatal support needs and develop new, father-inclusive strategies for promoting Black maternal, child, and family health.
Role: Principal Investigator
Award amount: $75,000

Fall Competition 07/21- 06/22
Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research and Graduate Education
Improving Social-Emotional Health of Mothers of Babies Born During the COVID-19 Pandemic
The goal of this study is to establish a brief online intervention to enhance maternal mental health and positive parenting among mothers of babies born during the COVID-19 pandemic.
Role: Principal Investigator
Award amount: $45,456

Child Support Policy Research Agreement 2020- 2022
Research agreement with Wisconsin Department of Children and Families (Dan Meyer, Principal Investigator). I am leading a study entitled “Exploring the Impacts of the COVID-19 Pandemic on Low-Income, Noncustodial Fathers.”
Role: Co-Investigator
Award amount: My project – $105,132; total award for the agreement –$5,390,990

Vilas Associates Award 2019- 2021

Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research and Graduate Education

The Vilas Associates Award recognizes new and on-going research of the highest quality and significance at UW-Madison. I am studying experiences of pregnancy and early parenting during the pandemic, including parent mental health, bonding with baby, coping and meaning making.

Role: Principal Investigator

Award amount: $81,756

Extension Research & Educational Programming Initiative

2019- 2020

Parents of Young Children as Champions for Family Health

We will evaluate an integrated mindful parenting + leadership training to support parents in becoming “Champions for Family Health.” (Ongoing due to delays incurred by COVID-19).

Role: Co-Investigator (PI: Schlosser)

Award amount: $10,000

Child Support Policy Research Agreement

1/19- 12/20

Research agreement with Wisconsin Department of Children and Families (Dan Meyer, Principal Investigator). I led a study entitled “Child support in military families.”

Role: Co-Investigator

Award amount: My project – $162, 229; total award for the agreement –$4,385,999

Baldwin Seed Project Grant

7/18- 8/19

Helping Infants and Toddlers Cope with Parental Separation

We adapted materials that were originally developed by ZERO TO THREE for military families to help infants and toddlers cope with parental separation that occurs because of parental incarceration, immigration detention or deportation. We conducted focus groups with currently or formerly incarcerated parents, and caregivers of children with incarcerated parents or children affected by immigration detention or deportation, to inform adaptation.

Role: Co-Investigator

Award amount: $4000

Child Support Policy Research Agreement

10/16- 12/18

Research agreement with Wisconsin Department of Children and Families (Maria Cancian Principal Investigator). I led a study entitled “Leveraging mobile technology to facilitate child support payments and promote positive engagement with children.”

Role: Co-Investigator

Award amount: $3,056,000

Sub-award from MDRC

05/16- 05/17

U.S. Department of Health & Human Services (HHS23320095644WC/HHSP23337008T)

Building Bridges and Bonds (B3) Study

The focus of this sub-award was to support development and testing of a mobile application as a participant engagement intervention for low-income, urban fathers in the B3 study.

Role: Principal Investigator

Award amount: $22,690

Fall Competition

09/16- 05/17

Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research and Graduate Education

When moms deploy: Experiences and support needs of women in the Wisconsin National Guard

This study examined the experiences and support needs of mothers serving in the Wisconsin National Guard and their families, in order to inform service delivery and policy development.

Role: Principal Investigator

Award amount: $24,800

Advancing Health Equity and Diversity Research Pilot Award

PRACTICE EXPERIENCE

- 2010-2011 Counselor, Partnering for the Future, Ann Arbor, MI.
 As part of a comprehensive intervention for pregnant women with mental health and substance use disorders, I accompanied women to ultrasound exams and facilitated a structured intervention to strengthen the relationship between mother and developing fetus and increase mother's investment in a healthy pregnancy.
- 2007-2009 Facilitator of Kids' Club and Moms' Empowerment Program, SafeHouse, Ann Arbor, MI.
 Facilitator of ten-session intervention program for mothers who have experienced domestic violence and their young children, aimed at enhancing children's social and emotional adjustment and coping behaviors, and enhancing mothers' adjustment and parenting.
- 2008-2009 Social Work Intern, UMHS Outpatient Child & Adolescent Psychiatric Clinic, Ann Arbor, MI.
 Provided psychotherapy to children and adolescents with a range of emotional and behavioral problems and facilitated educational and support groups for parents and caregivers.
- 2006-2007 Family Support Worker, Montague Catholic Social Ministries, Montague, MA.
 Made weekly home visits to provide support, information, and referrals to families with young children (0-3 years old), identified at high risk of intergenerational transmission of low literacy and poverty.
- 2002-2007 Director, 21st Century Community Learning Center After-School and Summer Programs, Gill-Montague-Regional School District, MA.
 My role encompassed design and implementation of publicly funded after-school and summer programs to provide academic enrichment opportunities during non-school hours for children attending high-poverty and low-performing rural schools.

- 2002-2003 Educator / Coordinator, Dialogues on Diversity, John F. Kennedy Library, Boston, MA.
I developed curriculum, coordinated and facilitated programs on pluralism for high school students.
- 2001-2002 Documentary Specialist / Researcher, Rural Family Support Organization, Clarendon, Jamaica.
Documented the Roving Caregivers Program – a home-visiting service for families with children ages 0-3 – through writing, photography, and video.
Conducted a qualitative impact assessment of the RCP.
